TowseTo register and download your test, email the test number. Is it an idea for the company that you are testing on, or a space in which to take tests (very useful if you are a student etc).
If there is any error during this download, please try downloading the file again. No seriously, I got the same problem. Seems like it's a dead issue since many years. Still I hope they could repair the Dx5s and Dx7s to work. It's a real pain to me, when I need to rent a laser printer for the company during a holiday. I had the same problem with the dye-sublimated dye venders as the: FV4110, fv1270, dx5, dx7, and dx40 also, but I discovered it at about 3 times the cost of the printheads: Are you kidding me?

Please use common sense and some professional knowledge about inkjet ink before you write about it on the internet! This is simply the top of my head, so any experts or readers of this thread may correct me!!!
