The screenshot shows a software interface for patch management. At the top, there is a green header with a "PATCH" icon and a navigation bar with several icons. Below the header, the main area is titled "INSTALLED PATCHES" and contains a table of patch information. On the left side, there are summary statistics for installed, disabled, and purchasable patches. A red arrow points to the "INSTALLED PATCHES" tab, and another red arrow points to the last row of the table.
